Compensation Plan

Network marketing is the fastest growing home-based business opportunity in the country. The Direct Selling Association forecasts that by 2010 network marketing companies will produce over $700 billion in revenue. With this kind of growth, network marketing is clearly the home-based business trend of the future. Young Living's network marketing advantage allows you to:

- Start a successful business based on a simple plan with extensive corporate support and training
- Begin with minimal costs, unlike expensive franchises and other small businesses
- Work part-time or full time—set your own hours so you can spend more time with family
- Have access to successful people who are eager to teach you “one-on-one”
- Enjoy residual income
- Benefit from the tax savings available to small businesses
- Build a solid retirement you can count on
- Help your friends and family enjoy a better quality of life

With its dynamic and generous compensation plan, proven successful track record, and unique proprietary essential oils and essential-oil based products, Young Living is simply the best opportunity in network marketing. Join us and you can set your own hours, work out of the comfort of your home, and enjoy a lifestyle of freedom while helping others benefit from improved health.
